Look for Corporate participation, firm participation

Publisher, Media Company

I, aged at the End of thirty and since 1995 as a journalist, have been working successfully for about five Years as the Editor-in-chief of an established Special Interest title with an Annual Turnover of approximately EUR 1 Million. Since I also have Budgetary Responsibility in this Position, my Knowledge and Experience extends far into the economic, organisational and sales aspects of publishing. Strategic Planning, effective Employee management And the Maintenance of business Contacts at an international Level are also part of my Day-to-day work.

Currently looking for a new professional challenge, happy in the Form of a stake or Takeover of a Company. Contacts with potential Donors and excellent Consulting Service Providers are in place, as are a whole Range of previously unrealized ideas and Concepts.
