Hotel industry / Gastronomy

I am a trained chef and restaurant expert and am looking for a well-established company to take over also with financial participation. I have several years of experience as a managing director in the upscale hotel industry, and I am also a very good host, unconnected, flexible, and highly resilient.

At the moment I am a co-partner in the parental hotel business. My older brother will continue to run the business on his own in the future.

I look forward to receiving your letters.
