Business concept

The company has been successfully engaged in the rental of motorhomes and caravans for decades. Currently, a reduced number of vehicles are available for hire.

The business concept is as simple as it is efficient. As an official dealer, the entrepreneur regularly buys new motorhomes from a well-known motorhome manufacturer to the dealer EKP. These are rented out to a selected clientele, so that the vehicles suffer relatively little as a result. The vehicles are thus included in the company's fixed assets and are written off very high. At regular intervals, usually in winter, when the rental is not given, vehicles are sold again and again. Since the mobiles were purchased very cheaply and are very well maintained, high resale revenues can be achieved, which are only slightly below the purchase values. That is,
