

Offer Corporate participation, firm participation

Multimedia Company

Our company was founded in , and is not a start-up, but a company that wants to expand further.

We need financial support to bring more new products in the markets, opening new markets in other countries and finally finish the way with the lpo in .

That is the chance for investors to participate.

Artists such as Madonna and Rihanna, designers such as Jean Paul Gaultier and Vivienne Westwood, companies such as Bmw and Ikea have all featured fetish themes as an element of their work. This combination of fetish lifestyle with the mainstream opens the way to large customer potential. Erotica and fetish are everywhere. The world is full of people with different inclinations, too many to list individually. Fetishes are processed via fashion, eroticism, music or art, which means there is great potential for products.

The corporate structure connecting the different markets uses all the synergies of modern markets such as the Internet, smartphones and already "long-standing" technologies such as print media or Dvd's. Finally, the company and product structure mean that we can open up exceptional, independent revenue streams.
