Offer Corporate sales, firm sales, sales Football fan collection-wholesale

After the World Cup is before the World Cup-the ball is around the designs too-

These are not classic fan articles, but products that everyone, regardless of their club colour, has fun with-for one of the most beautiful side things in the world.

The product portfolio includes products from the areas of stationery, accessories, living products, fashion that have been specially designed and developed. The products manufactured in China, Germany and other European countries, among others, have a very good market acceptance.

So far, the conception of the products has focused on the sport of football. It is possible to extend the brand to other sports, such as handball, marathon or cycling.

The product line also includes the Internet domain owned by the product.
