Internet-Platform

In spring we're going to launch an extensive and self-programmed internet-Portal here in Germany. Although the website has not been published yet, we currently have generated more than 120 Business customers. A fact that proves we are on the right way.

On the other hand we need more time, space (been working on this project since April) and money. Therefore we would like to offer you a silent partnership, since we are sure that our concept will convince you.
