Offer Corporate sales, firm sales, sales Recruiting

We want to sell our recruiting part of the company due to company related strategic reasons. The profit and loss is very positive and very successful. We have existing framework agreements with a number of high value and well known companies in the German market. The relationships with the client are on top down approach.

We want to focus in other services and industries, where we also act very successful and this is the reason for selling this part of the company
