Look for Corporate follow-up, firm follow-up, follow-up Crafts, construction

You have built a successful company and would like to hand it over to the next generation in a sustainable way in order to secure it in the long term? Then talk to us. We are happy to participate with up to 100% in companies whose unique selling points on the market are clearly recognizable in terms of product, service or distribution channel. Our goal is a human, future-oriented takeover with the aim of solid further development on the market.
