Software, web and app development

We develop software, web and app products according to customer requirements and develop our own solutions for digitization at the point of sale and our own apps, which are distributed with our own sales team in German retail and industry. For further expansion and scaling in Germany and later internationally, we are looking for capital in the form of:

- Issuance of preference shares
- Company participation in the form of ordinary shares up to 20%
- Silent participations with attractive interest rates
