Ladies and Gentlemen We run a well-running cleaning company with an attached construction business. We have teamed up with a qualified civil engineer and want to help our customers realize their real estate projects nationwide. From planning to implementation. We also plan to become active in the demolition industry. True to the motto, the more from a single source, the better. We are still looking for investors up to €100,000. 5% return contractually guaranteed. You can talk about anything. If you are interested, please contact us by first. Concept is available. Best regards
