Campsite with gastronomy

Modern, profitable campsite in the Eifel for sale.

The facility appeals in particular to families, active holidaymakers and those seeking relaxation and is experiencing stable, seasonally balanced demand. The geographically favourable location ensures very good accessibility and high popularity with guests from Germany and the Benelux countries.

In terms of infrastructure, the site is equipped with modern equipment (including well-maintained sanitary areas, electricity and water connections on the pitches, good pathways; other features on request).

Shopping facilities, leisure activities and excursion destinations are within a short distance, which further increases the quality of stay.

An operator's apartment is available and enables short distances as well as efficient operational management.

The campsite has a modern infrastructure and its own rental facilities.

Part of the offer is the inventory of the campsite.
