Campsite, mill, farm building

Campsite at a historic watermill in an idyllic location for sale.

The total area covers approx. 39,581 m², of which around 30,000 m² is available as campsite space.

Part of this offer is the campsite with an area of about 3 hectares to be measured, as well as the sanitary and reception building.

For many years, the "Forstmühle" ensemble was a nationally appreciated excursion and holiday destination with apartments, campsite, riding facilities, petting zoo, as well as gastronomy with beer garden.

The property includes a historic water mill, several outbuildings and farm buildings, a horse stable with a registered riding arena and the campsite.

On request, the buildings listed above can be purchased individually or as a complete package – please feel free to contact us.

Interested parties should expect a comprehensive need for renovation and repair of the campsite, as well as the buildings.
