

Offer Corporate sales, firm sales, sales Language school

Well-established and successfully run language school in a prime location near an S-Bahn station, looking for new and caring owners.

The school offers bright, modern office and classroom spaces in a pleasant and professional atmosphere and is fully operational. A strong and experienced team is already in place, including qualified native speakers, subject teachers, and a competent site manager who ensures smooth daily operations and high teaching standards.

With an existing customer base, an excellent reputation, ongoing courses, and clear structures, this school allows for a seamless transition for new owners. It is an ideal opportunity for language school operators, educators, or investors seeking to take over a stable and well-functioning educational business.

The takeover can take place at short notice and includes comprehensive handover and support during the transition phase.
