ID 26814

Offer Corporate sales, firm sales, sales

General Trade License

Available for purchase are 100% of the business shares of a GmbH (Limited Liability Company) established in 2022. The company is entirely debt-free and encumbrance-free; there are no outstanding liabilities to third parties (e.g., banks, suppliers) or the tax authorities.

Since its inception, only minimal revenue has been generated, resulting in a significant tax loss carryforward. This can be utilized by the acquirer to offset future profits for tax optimization purposes.

Existing Business Licenses:

Commercial Trade: All trades except regulated commercial trades.

Packaging and Shipping Preparation: Organized form of packaging and fulfillment services.

Transaction Details: The sale will be conducted as a Share Deal. The company currently holds no assets, real estate, or employees. The buyer will be responsible for the relocation/re-registration of the corporate seat.

This offer is ideal for individuals or entities looking to acquire an established legal structure without the administrative hurdles and time delays of a new incorporation.
