Offer Corporate sales, firm sales, sales E-Commerce

An established e-commerce business in the field of specialized consumer goods is offered for sale.

The business operates with a lean structure, low fixed costs and high profit margins. In the past 12 months, it generated approximately €20,000 in revenue with strong profitability.

The company has a growing customer base with several hundred active customers and consistent website traffic. Initial B2B relationships have also been established in retail.

The business has been operated with minimal marketing efforts so far, offering significant growth potential through online marketing, product expansion and improved customer retention.

The structure is simple and allows for an easy transition and further development.

The sale is part of a strategic realignment.
