Your chance in youth football – Established football school in Upper Franconia to hand over

Do you love football, like working with children and want to build something of your own? Then this is a rare opportunity: A successful and grown football school in Upper Franconia is looking for a new, committed leadership.

For years, the concept has been inspiring young players through professional training camps in Thuringia and Franconia. The focus is not only on technique and understanding of the game, but above all on the joy of football, team spirit and personal development.
