Offer Corporate sales, firm sales, sales Full-service advertising agency

For sale is a full-service advertising and communications agency in North Rhine-Westphalia that has been established for over 30 years. The company offers a holistic service portfolio from strategy, creation, print, text and web development to e-commerce, online marketing, social media and content marketing. Particularly noteworthy is the strong combination of classic advertising services with digital communication solutions, which means that the agency provides comprehensive support to medium-sized companies as well as regional and cross-industry customers.

The company has a broadly diversified customer base without significant dependency on major customers, a well-maintained customer database with more than 3,000 contacts and long-standing customer and supplier relationships. A well-rehearsed, experienced team, lean cost structures and an established market presence form a stable basis for the further development of the company.
