Boat rental / school

For sale is an established company from the water sports and leisure industry. The company combines boat rental, boat school, captain/skipper training as well as maritime leisure and event offers to create an attractive business model that can be easily controlled seasonally.

The location benefits from an excellent location directly on the Rhine, strong regional demand and low competition in the immediate vicinity. The central location between economically strong cities opens up access to a target group with purchasing power consisting of leisure customers, tourists, weekend trippers, training participants and corporate customers.

The company has a modern and easily usable maritime infrastructure with leased berths, pontoon, storage space and direct access to water.
