Look for Corporate sales, firm sales, sales Construction, Building Materials

We are an owner-managed, broad-based investment company (holding structure) based in Bavaria. As part of our long-term growth and investment strategy, we are looking for the entire spectrum of established medium-sized companies, real assets and operations.

Our search profile is deliberately defined across industries, as we have the necessary capital, management resources and technical expertise to successfully continue and strategically develop companies in various sectors.

We are specifically looking for takeovers (succession arrangements) or majority shareholdings in the following core areas:

CONSTRUCTION & SPECIAL CONSTRUCTION: Established companies in building, civil engineering, road construction or special construction, which are ideally active in the field of public or commercial tenders.
