Company succession / takeover in the area of fulfillment & warehouse logistics wanted

I am a trained warehouse logistics specialist with over ten years of practical professional experience in the areas of warehousing, shipping processing, order picking and logistical process control.

I am currently looking for an existing company in the field of fulfillment, warehouse logistics, shipping services or e-commerce processing to take over as part of a long-term company succession.
Preferably in the Krei Leer.

I am particularly interested in companies with existing customer structures, functioning processes and development potential. My goal is to responsibly continue existing processes, maintain customer relationships and grow the company sustainably.

I have in-depth operational experience, organizational talent, customer orientation and the willingness to actively participate in day-to-day business and take on responsibility.
